

The Aging Profession/Renewal of the Profession (and Also the Profession Itself) – Make the Profession Younger.

David Oluwakunmilola Adetunji-Alao (Nigeria)

Key words: Education; Implementation of plans; Young surveyor

SUMMARY

The Aging Profession/Renewal of the profession (and also the profession itself) – make the profession younger.

Adetunji-Alao David Oluwakunmilola, Landmark University, Nigeria

The purpose of this study is to show how young adults can renew an aging profession. Researches have been made that the younger generation have better qualities than the older generations such as COMMUNICATION SKILLS, COMPUTER LITRACY, BETTER AND FASTER PROBLEM-SOLVING SKILLS, CURIOSITY, ADAPTABILITY, EMOTIONAL INTELIGENCE. Researches have shown in the past how highly recognizable and respected individuals in the world today had great innovation ideas in their younger days such as Bill Gates, Elon Musk. Renewing of a profession starts by giving the younger generation more important roles in a profession, because the younger generation will bring in new, innovative ideas, also the eagerness of the younger generations to try new things which will bring a reviving to an aging profession. The goal of this study is to show the importance of the younger generation in reviving an aging profession thus, establishing new ways to solve problems which leads to saving time and energy, helping the profession stay up to date etc.

The Aging Profession/Renewal of the Profession (and Also the Profession Itself) – Make the Profession Younger.
(11895)

David Oluwakunmilola Adetunji-Alao (Nigeria)

FIG Working Week 2023

Protecting Our World, Conquering New Frontiers

Orlando, Florida, USA, 28 May–1 June 2023